ABSTRACT

Offering maps and geographic routes for 28 books, this guide illustrates how to teach students in grades 9-12 with literary maps, taking them on a journey through real and imaginary terrains. Entries span a range of genres and literary formats, including novels, dramas, and diaries. Each follows a book's protagonist through space and time, covering places visited as well as historical figures, customs, cultures, and events. Each entry provides a geographical summary, a detailed itinerary, a list of further reading, and a map. The book contains a 22-title filmography, a 54-title general bibliography, and an index. (MES)
